These little invitations called Miss Helen's friends to the pretty home on South Sycamore street last Saturday afternoon:

"Come to my birthday party, Saturday, August 6, 1910, from 5:30 to 7. Helen Watts."

Little Helen was seven years old that day, and wore the honors gracefully. The lawn was arranged for games, and the birthday table was here with the cake of seven candles for the seven sweet years. Mrs. Watts was assisted by Miss Beulah Scott in entertaining the little ones and serving the birthday feast. At the close of the afternoon Judge King called in his handsome automobile, carrying the whole party for a ride. Fans were the favors of the afternoon, and pretty gifts were showered upon the little honoree. Hudson. Immediately after the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. A. D. Sparkman, her pastor, the happy pair left for their home, followed by the best wishes of friends and loved ones. The bride is well known in Palestine, and beloved by all who know her. Her husband is a prosperous farmer and has won a treasure for his home in this noble woman.

Miss Frankie Sawyers has returned from a visit to Fort Worth.

Misses Irma and Dorothy Langston have returned from a visit to relatives at Eagle Lake.

Mrs. Laura Hart, state commander of the Ladies of the Maccabees, is in the city. She is always a welcome guest to her friends, and the Hives especially.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Howard of Palestine arrived in Galveston Monday and are registered at the Surf Hotel, where they had reserved apartments. Their stay in Galveston will probably be one of several days' duration. Mrs. A. R. Howard is the state president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. From yesterday's Galveston News.

TEXANS IN COLORADO.

Colorado Springs, Colo.—"Dixie programs" have proven among the most popular of those which have been offered by the Midland band at its recent concerts in Colorado Springs and Manitou. So successful was the recent "Southern night" at Manitou that the director has responded to the calls for an encore. The majority of requests have been for such old-fashioned southern melodies as "Dixie," "My Old Kentucky Home," "The Yellow Rose of Texas."

Dr. R. W. Carroll of Beaumont is spending his vacation in Manitou. He is registered at the Mansions Hotel.

F. P. Young of Marshall is a Colorado Springs visitor.

Mrs. R. C. Crawford and son of Houston have taken rooms with Mrs. J. K. Miller of Colorado Springs for a visit of some length.

Among Colorado Springs visitors are R. W. and H. Higginbotham of Dallas, who are registered at the Antlers Hotel.

Texans joined in an informal excursion and reunion on Thursday of last week when a large party from the Lone Star State gathered for a wild flower excursion into the mountains west of Colorado Springs. The call for the gathering was given publicly by J. H. Manderville, a visitor from Texas, who brought forth the suggestion that visiting residents from Texas and Oklahoma should join in making the excursion, which was taken from Colorado Springs through Ute Pass and Eleven-Mile canyon into South Park. Frequent stops were made on the train to allow for the picking of wild flowers and for informal reunions. It is the plan of those at the head of the movement to hold another and larger meeting of this kind for the purpose of bringing together this season visitors from these states.

At the summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson of Fort Worth, Texas, 1707 Wood avenue, Colorado Springs, on Thursday evening, August 4, Miss Mary Louise Thompson and Bertrand Needham Honea were united in marriage, the Rev. James A. Vance of the Hyde Park church of Chicago, officiating. Mr. Honea is connected with the business department of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Miss Thompson is a daughter of George Thompson, general counsel for the International and Great Northern Railway company. The couple left immediately after the ceremony for Glenwood Springs, where they will remain until September 1 before returning to their home in Fort Worth. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson have spent several summers in Colorado Springs and had as guests at the wedding a large number of friends in this city as well as many prominent Texas people now visiting in Colorado Springs and Manitou.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harris and D. Harris of Clarksville are at the Cliff House in Manitou.

James P. Walker, prominent in Texas banking circles, died in Colorado Springs this last week. The body was sent to the home of his brother, S. E. Walker, McKinney, Texas, where burial took place.

DROUTH IN TEXAS

Boosts the Price of Cotton on the New York Exchange.

New York, Aug. 8.—The comparatively dry Sunday in the Texas cotton belt was the signal for one of the most extended buying movements the local market has experienced in some time. New high levels were made by all positions, August advancing 26 points and the new crops from 31 to 32 points above the close of Saturday. Private advices from Texas bordered on the sensational and a well known local expert now in the south, wired that unless relieved soon, the Texas crop must fall to close to 3,000,000 bales.

Sold out bulls made vigorous efforts to replace their lines on today's advance and there was heavy buying by Liverpool and Wall street. Notwithstanding some heavy unloading by room traders on the reaction theory, only slight setbacks occurred up to 1 o'clock. In the last half hour heavy buying by spinners rushed prices up to still higher levels and the close was firm at 23 to 35 points net advance.

TEXAS GETS A ROAST

Along With Other Southern States Because of Lynchings and Riots.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 9.—After denouncing Texas and other southern states for lynchings and riots, prominent negroes here have started a plan to induce all negroes of the country to protest against riots and lynchings and demand equal rights in all parts of the country. The meeting was excited and many negroes attended. Among the number were many federal office-holders, who fairly shrieked their denunciations.

Ready For Business.

Well, I am back and ready for business. I find there are other tuners in the field, but that is all right; there is work enough for all, and if I can't get all the work I can do without running down other tuners, I just won't get the work, that is all. I will get to my old customers as soon as possible. If you are in a hurry just drop me a note. Yours for piano tuning, H. M. Jones. Box 814. 2-28-tr

To the Public

Effective August 11, the price of automobile service has been changed to conform to the price regulated by the city ordinances, namely, 25 cents for ten blocks or under, and 50 cents for distances over ten blocks. A charge of $2.50 per hour will be made to parties wanting to hire cars by the hour. The change is made in order to enable us to make a small profit on the business, as the prices heretofore charged allowed no margin. The new prices are the same as hack charges, and no more than has always been charged.

Society In Contest For Longest Trains and Wedding Veils

If society does not change styles soon strong men will be required to carry the veils and trains of brides. Starting with the Gould-Drexel wedding, a hot contest has been waged between the society leaders as to who could find the most material for a bridal gown. Miss Priscilla Toland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dale Toland of Philadelphia, has the honor up to the present moment. Miss Toland became the wife of Gaspar Bacon, son of the American ambassador to France, and the wedding was marked by the great number of detectives and policemen and the wonderful display of satin and duchess lace. Mr. Bacon, recently a member of J. P. Morgan & Co., and Mrs. Bacon came from Europe to attend the wedding, which was very jolly. No end of young people attended it. The bride's gown was of ivory satin, richly embroidered and trimmed with duchess lace. Her tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a cluster bouquet of lilies of the valley. Six bridesmaids attended her. The best man was Gaspar's brother, Robert Bacon, Jr. The Tolands boast an ancestry as old as any in this country. When young Mr. and Mrs. Bacon return from their honeymoon tour they will reside in Boston.
